Ryan

Director,
Cornhill Sydney

Peter loves sport, sate beef and spending time with family and friends. He runs a training program in Sydney that helps people better understand and teach the Bible. He spent 5 years in Namibia teaching at a Bible College and is now finishing a PhD.

Why trust the Gospels?

Whether it's a Hollywood movie, or a newspaper story, or a lunchtime conversation, it's common nowadays for many to question the historical reliability of the Gospels. Can we actually trust what the Gospels say or are they just a bunch of made-up stories?

Mike
Hands

Associate Pastor, Newlife Church

Mike was an English and History teacher before he became a pastor on the Gold Coast. He loves reading and learning, and is about to complete a Masters in Ministry.

Why is following Jesus revolutionary?

Faith in Jesus was never meant to be boring or sterile. When Jesus spoke of the kingdom of God, he had more in mind than a church service on Sunday—he began a movement that changed everything. What does this revolution look like? And how do we become part of it?

Stephanie Judd

Associate Minister and Women's Ministry Director,
City on a Hill, Melbourne

Steph oversees training, and discipleship of women at City on a Hill, Melbourne, and exercises teaching and leadership across the City on a Hill movement. She is married to Andrew and has an active, dramatic and driven one year old called Joshua and a little girl due in April

Will I be okay?

In a world where relationships can be uncertain, and friends and family disappoint, we can struggle to find a sense of worth, or a strong sense of identity. Understanding that we are known, secure and loved by God can make all the difference.

Living out the Christian faith in today's world is not always easy for our young people. In a world of selfies, identity politics and 'fake news', Bible Society's Masterclass will inspire, challenge and equip Christian students by tackling the big questions: Does the Christian faith make sense? What does the Bible have to say about issues in our world? And what does it mean to live a bold Christian life that makes a real difference?

Masterclass is a one-day event for students in Years 9-11. Throughout the day, students will hear engaging talks from three leading speakers:

a foundational talk that builds confidence in the Bible, a missional talk that encourages students to live out their faith, and a topical talk that explores contemporary issues from a Biblical perspective.

Masterclass also includes a popular Q&A session, giving students the freedom to ask our panel of speakers the searching questions about the Christian faith they've always wanted to ask.

This is a free event, wholly funded by Bible Society supporters.
