SALT AND LIGHT IN A POST-TRUTH WORLD

How can the 21st century Christian navigate the increasingly volatile marketplace of ideas? What does the Christian message have to offer hearts and minds in a world of such unprecedented diversity? This session will set out the beauty and fundamentals of the Gospel, by looking more closely at three foundational issues: the nature of technology, the nature of success, the nature of people.

Mark Stephens

Lecturer in New Testament, Sydney Missionary & Bible College (SMBC)

GOING PUBLIC WITH JESUS: LIVING FAITHFULLY WHEN YOU CAN'T CONTROL THE RESULT

When you live for Christ you are light in a dark world. Some will be attracted. Others might ghost you. Some may even attack you. You can't guarantee how people will react. 1 Peter encourages us that Christians have been here before. Our job is to speak love, suffer with grace, and act in holiness. Living for Jesus is always worth it, even when you can't control the result.

Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Public Christianity (CPX)

ACHIEVEMENT ADDICTION

Is winning or coming first a big deal to you? Maybe top grades are your thing, or sporting glory, or being popular. It's easy to become obsessed with tracking and measuring our success. But the problem is that it becomes difficult to not base our identity on our accomplishments. What might life be like, and how would our sense of self-worth change, if we were no longer addicted to achievement?

What is Masterclass?

Bible Society's Masterclass events are for students in school years 9-11 to explore contemporary issues from a biblical perspective. Masterclass also includes a popular Q&A session which gives students the freedom to ask our panel of speakers searching questions about the Christian faith. Your students are frequently challenged to give a reason for the hope they have in Jesus. Masterclass helps young Christians to grow in their confidence and withstand the pressures of living in a post-Christian society.
